Jack Lewis Presents Eleventh Hour Today

"The Eleventh Hour" was first produced about six years ago, however, the play has never been released for stock until two weeks ago when Jack Lewis, of the Lewis-Oliver players, now appearing at the Hippodrome, contracted for it for Fairmont. There are only five stock companies in the United States producing this play this week, and the Lewis-Oliver company is the first to produce it in the smaller cities. Mr. Lewis has an agent in both New York and Chicago and they are always on the outlook for good plays for his company here.

"The Eleventh Hour" will be given for the first time in this city tonight at the Hippodrome and carpenters and scene artists have been busy for the past week on the production which will be complete in every detail.

Miss Edna Grandin has a very long part in this play which is the reason for her not appearing in the play the first half of the week, however, she will appear tonight in one of the best parts she has ever played in Fairmont. The entire company is well cast and a first-class performance of "The Eleventh Hour" is assured.

Starting Monday matinee the original Sarah Bernhardt version of "Camille" will be presented. All seats will be reserved for the Labor day matinee.

pains through my back that lasted all day. My limbs got so bad that when
